The Doctors' Row.

This afternoon at 2 o'clock the two cases of provoke and assault and battery preferred by Dr. Sweringen against Dr. Stemen were called before Justice Harding. Deputy Prosecutor Rodabaugh and J. Q. Stratton appeared for the state and S. M. Hench for Dr. Stemen who filed an affidavit setting forth his belief that he could not have a fair trial before Harding who granted a change of venue and sent the case to Justice Ryan, who will hear pro and con, Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock. Dr. Stemen states that he will not bring any case of provoke.

Dr. Sweringen was seen by the reporter in the court room and stated that he did not insult Dr Stemen at the Stumptown sanctuary as charged; that he and his friends went to the church impelled by curiosity to see and hear Dr. Stemen in the role of preacher and that they manifested a reverential spirit while in the House of God. Regarding the affray, Dr. Sweringen said that he made no movement towards Stemen and totally unanticipated an attack. He stated further that had he possessed a revolver or knife the affair might have ended differently.

Wise for Clerk of the Supreme Court.

We are very glad to learn from reliable Indianapolis gentlemen of political influence that the candidacy for clerk of the supreme court by Platt J. Wise, esq, of this city, is generally received with favor and that his chances are now regarded as superior to those of any other candidate.

Mr. Wise is a gentleman known all over the state for his attainments and for his record of integrity and ability. His career in the sheriff's office of this county is familiar to our citizens and abroad as well.

THE SENTINEL strongly urges the claim of our fellow citizen for the nomination, and in doing so guarantees that he will fill the position with honor to himself and the democratic party.

CIRCULARS were issued Saturday from the headquarters of the Hebrew Immigrant Aid Society of the United States, at No 15 State street, in New York City, calling for a general conference of the Hebrews in this country for the purpose of inaugurating a concerted effort for the aid of the people of their nationality who are fleeing from Russian persecution. The circulars are addressed to representative citizens in the different cities, and set forth that the numerous requests coming from the kindred organizations in the western states have influenced the executive committee of the society to adopt the suggestions of a general conference. Local organizations should take hold and discharge the work, which is really beyond the reach of the parent society. The meeting will be held on Sunday, June 4, at the Hebrew Orphan asylum in New York.

Marshall Withdraws.

[By Telegraph to the Sentinel.]

PITTSBURG, May 22—In an interview this morning, Hon. Thos. M. Marshall, through his son, stated that he had decided to decline the republican nomination for congressman at large. ST. LOUIS, May 22—Theodore Vierheller, a well known saloon proprietor of Belleville, Ill., left his wife's side as she slept, during last night, went down stairs to his saloon, slashed his throat from ear to ear with a razor and then shot himself twice through the forehead with a revolver and died within five hours. The cause was domestic troubles.

Threw Himself Under an Engine.

[By Telegraph to the Sentinel.]

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind, May 22.—William White, a homeless and friendless Irishman, aged forty-five, partly deranged owing to melancholia, threw himself in front of a Vandalia train two miles west of this city, Saturday morning, with suicidal intent. The engine tossed him to one side, breaking one arm and leg and inflicting internal injuries from which he died. The deceased was discharged from the insane asylum one month ago. He had no family.

Boston's Bank Finally Goes Under.

[By Telegraph to the Sentinel.]

BOSTON, May 22—The Pacific National bank, which suspended some months ago and resumed but a few weeks since, stopped payment to-day and will wind up business. Its directors voted to go into liquidation and applied for a receiver. The suspension is considered due to a lack of business. Since resumption public confidence was not great enough to warrant any large dealings with the concern.

LATER.

The cause of the suspension of the bank was the maturing of $500,000 Saturday which the bank was unable to pay and which went to protest. It is understood that all depositors will be paid in full, but the original stockholders will have their investment of $2,000,000 wiped out.

This was a good day for rows. This afternoon a countryman saw fit to call a prominent and wealthy citizen "a liar" near Pyke's grocery. The gentleman affronted, very promptly and properly struck the insolent person a blow on the nose which brought the claret and the man slunk off with the avowed intention of getting out a warrant.

They have the most extensive stock of millinery goods in the city, and doubtless the greatest trade. "American Politics."

"American politics (non partisan) from the beginning to date," is the title of the new work written and compiled by Hon. Thomas V. Cooper and Hector T. Fenton, Esq. A handsomely bound copy is now on our table, and it has all the appearance of the very finest encyclopædical publications, save that in "American Politics" the type is larger, bourgeois, style, plain to the eye and set in double columns. Senator Cooper, the leading author of the work, is one of the best known legislators of Pennsylvania, having been elected for terms covering fourteen years, is now chairman of his party's state committee, and is, therefore, thoroughly booked and competent for the work undertaken.

It is no exaggeration to say that "American Politics" is the most comprehensive and instructive political work ever published in this country. "Benton's Thirty Years' Review" covered a limited period, from 1820 to 1850; "Niles' Register" (which now brings at public sale $150) was but a running periodical review of the doings of congress, while Cooper's "American Politics" covers the history of all political parties from the beginning of parties in this country until now. Even the final action on the Chinese and Polygamy questions are fully stated, and the best selections made from the opposing speeches of Senators Miller, Hoar, Jones, Vest, etc.

Not only is the history of all parties presented in an attractive form, but wherever and whenever any of these parties stood in hostile array on any great issue, they are kept in that relation throughout their life or the life of the issue, the views of their greatest leaders given, and their records faithfully shown.

Mr. Thomas Gutelius, a very worthy gentleman, is canvassing the city at present with the work, and all desiring to purchase the book can be accommodated.

MONDAY, MAY 22.

OFFICIAL PAPER COUNTY AND CITY.

BY E. A. E. HACKETT.

SINCE the death of the noted bandit, Jesse James, three hundred and seven new male infants have been christened in his name in Missouri.

POLK WELLS and COOK, the two desperados who killed a guard and escaped from the Iowa penitentiary, have been convicted of murder in the first degree.

THE will of the late Governor Washburn bequeaths $50 000 for a public library at La Crosse, and $350,000 for an asylum at Minneapolis, to be named in honor of his mother.

THE importing of potatoes from Europe into the United States has become an extensive business. Up to December 31, 1881, 749 000 sacks had been brought from Great Britain and Germany, and enough since then to swell the quantity to 1,500,000 sacks during the season.

THE Indianapolis Independent says: "Gen. James H. Rice, better known all over the state as "Jim" Rice, is the booming candidate for auditor on the democratic state ticket. Jim is popular, and will be a hard man to beat in the race for the nomination. He knows everybody"

THE Chicago authorities have so far been unable to recover the bodies of ten of the remaining victims of the recent Lake Calumet disaster. The coroner's inquest shows that a very feeble effort was made to save the drowning pleasure party, although abundant material and appliances were at hand.

THE residence thoroughfares of the city are by no means in a good condition. The slightest rain causes water to stand in pools in the middle of the street, making it decidedly unpleasant to drive over or look at. These defects should at once be remedied, for it surely is no credit to the city to leave them as they are.

THE Chicago Inter Ocean sarcastically remarks that "a fellow out at Metamora, Ind., had his arm torn off by the premature explosion of a dynamite cartridge which he had prepared for killing fish. It looks like severe punishment, but a man who will be guilty of such wholesale slaughter of fish, deserves not only his arm, but his head blown off."

THE French government has offered a bounty of 7½ per cent. to every Frenchman who will own a ship, whether it is built in France or a foreign country. The government found, after several years' experience, that to prohibit a Frenchman from buying a ship built abroad killed the French merchant marine. Our government sticks to the medieval policy and hence our merchant marine has dwindled down to nothing.

WE have received a circular from John B. Conner, chief of the Indiana bureau of statistics, setting forth that the annual reports of his department are just from the press and that several of them have been forwarded to Auditor Argo, of this county, for distribution. One copy is for THE SENTINEL, and a copy each for the offices of county auditor, clerk, treasurer and recorder, one for the county library, one for each of the township libraries, and one for the county superintendent of schools.

JACOB R. SHIPHERD prints a card offering "five dollars reward and positively no awkward questions asked for the return of one James G. Blaine," who is supposed to have concealed in the pockets of his Prince Albert coat the committee on foreign affairs. Mr. Shipherd says he has been before the committee on foreign affairs so long and so often that he likes it. Therefore he wants the committee recovered.

THE common council meets tomorrow evening, and among other things will fix the salaries of officers for the ensuing year. THE SENTINEL believes that few changes should be made. The old officers have proved worthy, faithful and capable. The salary of the chief engineer of the fire department should be increased at least enough to insure that he will devote his whole time to the city's interests. There is no economy in paying officers a beggarly salary, and it is a notorious fact now that certain city officers are very poorly compensated for the amount and value of the labor they perform.

THE Cleveland Bridge and Car Works company assigned Saturday to H. F. Sweezer, of Titusville, and W. H. McCurdy, of Cleveland, who gave bond in $25,000, and will complete the contracts and continue the business of the company. The 700 employes were paid off also as far as the contracts demanded, and in a few days will be paid to May 1. President Claflin states that the assignment was forced by the pressure of obligations and the difficulty of obtaining ready money. He says the company's assets are $250,000 greater than liabilities; that it has contracts to construct $250,000 worth of bridges for the Lake Shore, Nickel Plate, Bee Line, Chicago & Atlantic, and Cleveland, Mount Vernon, & Columbus railways, and to build about 700 cars He says the works are worth $325,000, including upward of $100,000 of real estate. The exact assets and liabilities cannot be ascertained for some time Mr. Claflin thinks the company will be able to resume business in sixty or ninety days

It Acts Upon the Blood.

Loose's Extract of Red Clover Blossoms acts upon the blood in every sense of the word It is remarkable how it works. For the cure of cancer it cannot be excelled. For sale by all druggists.

Once they started a girl's seminary in Utah. It flourished well, but just in the height of its prosperity the principal eloped with the whole school.

A New Principle.

The principle upon which Putnam's Painless Corn Extractor acts is entirely new. It does not sink deep into the flesh, thereby producing soreness, but acts directly upon the external covering of the corn, separates it from the under layer, removes the direct pressure from the part, and at once effects a radical cure, without any pain or discomfort. Let those who are suffering from corns, yet skeptical of treatment, try it, and by the completeness of the cure they will be ready to recommend Putnam's Painless Corn Extractor to others. Horsford's Acid Phosphate in Nervous Debility.

Never Abandon Old Friends.

If you have a friend who has been constant to you and stuck to you through good and bad fortune, would you soon forget him? No, you would not. Well, Pond's Extract, your old friend, has served you many, many years. Rely on the old remedy, it will never fail you. It is your constant, steady, faithful friend, tried and true, always uniform, never misleading by false pretences. It goes right along more firmly settled every year as the Great Family Remedy of the country. When you ask for it always see and be sure that you get Pond's Extract.

Herbert Spencer is again down in health and has been compelled to abandon his contemplated visit to America.

Chicago, Aug. 17, 1881.—I have been afflicted for a long time with a so called barber's itch, and was unable to find anything to give relief. A friend asked me to try Papillon, and to my great surprise and delight, in a short time it effected a complete cure. H. Hicks, 24 Fry st.

A Baptist Minister's Experience.

I am a Baptist minister, and before I ever thought of being a clergyman, I graduated in medicine, but left a lucrative position for my present profession, forty years ago. I was for many years a sufferer from quinsy; "Thomas' Eclectric Oil cured me." I was also troubled with hoarseness, and Thomas' Eclectric Oil always relieved me. My wife and child had diphtheria and "Thomas' Eclectric Oil cured them," and if taken in time it will cure seven times out of ten. I am confident it is a cure for the most obstinate cold or cough, and if any one will take a small teaspoon and half fill it with the Oil, and then place the end of the spoon in one nostril and draw the oil out of the spoon into the head by sniffing as hard as they can, until the Oil falls over into the throat, and practice that twice a week, I dont care how offensive their head may be, it will clean it out and cure their catarrh. For deafness and earache it has done wonders to my certain knowledge. It is the only medicine dubbed patent medicine that I have ever felt like recommending, and I am very anxious to see it in every place, for I tell you that I would not be without it in my house for any consideration. I am now suffering with a pain like rheumatism in my right limb, and nothing relieves me like Thomas' Eclectric Oil. DR. E F. CRANE, Corry, Pa.

The work of laying water works pipes for the Nebraska extension was commenced this morning and will be rapidly pushed to completion as the demands for water and fire protection in that vicinity are urgent.

This morning a lad named Tillotson fell some fifteen feet from a ladder placed against the Catholic Library building. Strange to say no limbs were broken and after shaking himself, the lad limped off.

Roland Reed, who appears here next Monday in Fred Marsden's new play of "Cheek," was for some time first comedian of McVicker's stock company, Chicago. He is a clever young actor and is credited with a hit in his new play.

A warrant has been received by the sheriff for the return from the insane asylum of John Clauss, a shoemaker, sent to the institution a year ago. He was then laboring under temporary derangement, the result of excessive drinking.

Last evening Harry Webber and company, who play in a bad piece called "Nip and Tuck," seen here often, came in from Defiance and registered at the Mayer. This morning they left for Muncie where they play to-night.

Dr. J. W. Younge appeared this morning seated in a new and novel two wheeled vehicle called a village cart, somewhat similar to the dog cart of which there are one or two in the city. The doctor ordered the cart from Ridley, New York at a cost of $200.

This morning a fellow named Emerson, who came here as a follower of the circus, had a fight with one Topley, connected with a side show. Both were drunk and were left behind. Emerson was badly pummeled. The row occurred on Harrison street and there were no arrests.

In loading the elephant "Betsy," upon her car, Saturday night, the beast became infuriated and viciously attacked her keeper, Prof. Nathan Davis, who, however, subdued the ponderous beast by prodding her with his sharp steel javelin. This elephant's age is estimated at 125 years, and she is at times very violent.

Jeff Morse, who is somewhat notorious hereabouts, and partner, were operating Saturday, their pockets being filled with monte cards, "skin tops," and other swindling devices. Sunday, Marshal Falker notified them to leave town on pain of being run in. They sloped at 10 o'clock last night. Morse's wife is yet in the city.

The circus performance Saturday night was given under disadvantages, the rain pouring down and penetrating the leaky canvas. The performances in the ring were cut and the performers did not exhibit much animation. About 3,000 people were, nevertheless, in the tent, and Messrs. Batcheller & Doris are several thousand dollars in pocket on the two performances.

Last Friday, a young man named Schuyler, from Clinton, Iowa, came to this city to attend the wedding of his friend, Frank Potter, to Miss Hill. He had occasion to hire a buggy and went to A. J. Read's livery stable where he was furnished with an outfit. He returned the buggy with the box damaged and a wheel sprung. Mr. Reed did not notice the damage until the next morning and sent a messenger to Schuyler to collect damages from him amounting to $1.75. Schuyler refused to pay and the liveryman sought a justice. A constable went to capias Schuyler who told him he had just settled with Read, which was, of course, not the case. Then the young man took a train and went to Grand Rapids. On his return he will be arrested and forced to pay the trifling sum with costs.

A MUSCULAR CHRISTIAN.

Dr. Stemen Thumps Dr. Sweringen in a Justice Court---A Scene in a Stumptown Sanctuary.

The troubles of local physicians are generally more or less prominent before the public and they much delight to wage acrimonious warfare one against the other in the columns of the newspapers and on the streets. About as bitter a feud as any exists between Dr. Stemen on the one hand, and Drs. W. H. Myers and H. V. Sweringen on the other. Sweringen has assailed Stemen in every possible way and gleefully boasts of his venomous hatred towards the rival Esculapius.

Dr. Stemen, as is pretty well known, is a regularly ordained Methodist minister, and sees fit to heal souls diseased, as well as bodies Because he is a physician he does not think it improper that he should expound gospel truths when he so desires. His enemies, the doctors aforesaid, however, do not like this combination of professions and, being hardly imbued with the meek and lowly spirit which we are told to cultivate in the Good Book, they have railed on Stemen and ridiculed his pretensions to piety. Frequently do we receive scurrilous postals and letters bearing the ear-marks of some of Dr. Stemen's enemies who want him held up to ridicule. We regard Dr. Stemen as a good man and an able physician. He has a large practice which is probably what his rivals don't like and they would cast odium upon him and injure his business.

Last night, Dr. Stemen was announced to preach at the Free Methodist church, on Creighton avenue, in the portion of the city known as 'Stumptown." The reverend doctor had but taken his position in the pulpit preparatory to pointing out the way of salvation on the Methodist plan, when he was somewhat disconcerted to see Drs. W. H. Myers, H. V. Sweringen and J. W. Younge stride up the aisle and take a choice front pew. Dr. Stemen, however, recovering his self-possession, proceeded to read his text and lay down the law and gospel. Hardly had he began his discourse, when he thought he noticed Dr. Sweringen's saturnine face tortured into mocking and insulting lines. The preacher stopped and descending warned Sweringen to desist his insults or be ejected from the house. Dr. Sweringen avowed sarcastically his innocence of any such unseemly behavior and Stemen resumed his sermon. Then Dr. Myers took a hand and assumed to be melted to tears by Dr. Stemen's eloquence and pathos, rocking to and fro with apparent emotion, while his two associates vainly endeavored to suppress their risibilities. This was too much for Dr. Stemen, who hastened to bring the services to a close.

This morning Dr. Sweringen, as a part of the scheme of persecution, visited the office of D. L. Harding, J. P., and swore to an affidavit charging Dr. Stemen with provoke. Constable Robbins was given the warrant and at 9 o'clock entered the office with his prisoner. Dr. Sweringen was waiting, a smile of triumph lighting up his countenance. The justice had not arrived.

Dr. Stemen could no longer suppress his indignation, and making a bee line for his enemy he knocked him down and then got in two additional licks upon the prostrate man's face. The two doctors were parted by the constable, and glared viciously at each other until the arrival of the magistrate who adjourned the cases until 2 o'clock this afternoon. Another affidavit, charging assault and battery, was filed by Sweringen and Stemen will file an affidavit for provoke.

Dr. Sweringen's face bears the marks of the contest. The affair will afford amusement for the medical profession for a month.

A Painful Accident.

Yesterday afternoon about half-past five o'clock, August Korn, the Broadway grocer, was driving on South Broadway in a two seated wagon. His wife and child, accompanied him, and occupied the back seat. When near the Wabash railroad the horse became frightened at some object or other and started up suddenly, throwing the back seat, which was improperly fastened, from its place, and Mrs. Korn and her child violently to the ground. Both persons were assisted into the wagon and driven to their home. Drs. Myers and Sweringen were summoned, examined the injured persons, but found no serious injuries. Both, however, are suffering extremely from the shock occasioned by the fright and fall.

A Prize Fight.

Yesterday a number of wags took in tow a cigar maker named Murphy, and convinced him that as a fighter, he hardly fell short of Sullivan himself. They put up a job with another cigar maker named Robertson, and induced Murphy to fight him for an ostensible purse of $5 a side, the money being put up by the fellows.

The pugilists started for a secluded spot west of the city, near the Pittsburg track, where a ring was formed, and the parties stripped and sailed in. The first round was ended by Robertson grasping his antagonist, Murphy, about the legs and downing him, and the second round was a repetition of the first. The third round was ended by Robertson pitching Murphy clean out of the ring. When the vanquished man had recovered his breath, he was asked why he didn't lick his man, and faintly responded that it was because he didn't want to hurt him. Murphy came home in a very silent mood, and is positive he will make no further pretensions to being a pugilist.

N. A. Goodwin, an old man who has been in Minnesota trying to acquire wealth in that productive country, gave it up as a bad job owing to illness and a consequent inability to labor. He came here, slept at the Harmon house last night, being unable to settle his bill this morning. The township trustee furnished the old man with a pass to Lima, O.

Attempt to Crack a Safe.

This morning, when George Esmond, the well known miller, entered his office, which is situated in the west side of the mill, he was somewhat startled at the situation of affairs. The office desks had all been ransacked and the papers scattered about the floor. The money drawer had been broken open and a small amount of money taken therefrom. Proceeding to the safe, Mr. Esmond found that an almost successful attempt had been made to force it open. A hole had been bored almost through the safe, but fortunately for Mr. Esmond the bit used by the burglars snapped in two. This, of course, put a damper on the ardor of the enterprising cracksmin and they left, it is supposed, very much disgusted with the job. The work had evidently been done Saturday night and Mr. Esmond believes by the gang of sharks who follow the circus. Mr. Esmond congratulates himself on the ill luck of the marauders, as there was considerable money in the safe.

The McDowell Case.

The case of the State vs. McDowell was called this morning, Hon. S. E. Sinclair on the bench. Inasmuch as the defense had not prepared their pleadings, by consent of the attorneys for the state, the case was continued over until the June session. This will delay the case until after the convention, and will probably suit the numerous politicians engaged in the case.

It quite looks as if McDowell would again triumph over his enemies and flourish.

Police Court.

At police court, this morning, Wm. Dunlap loomed up after a spree and a night's repose at the cooler. He was fined $11.75, but found security for a stay of judgment.

John Welch was up again and was sent over for fourteen days.

James Pugh was sent to jail for five days for being boozy, while James McLachlan and Albert Worden will decorate the stone pile for sixteen days for the same offense.

Auditor Argo has returned from his southern trip much benefitted in health. While south he sojourned at Tate Epsom spring, Granger county, Tenn., and states that the waters did him a vast deal of good. The water is recommended for many diseases, and Mr. Argo has ordered a barrel sent to this city for his use.

The Duty of Newspapers.

When experienced, practical unprejuced physicians widely endorse and recommend a medicine, knowing from the ingredients it contains that it is nature's best assistant as a health renewer, especially in curing impure blood, dyspepsia, kidney and lung diseases, female complaints and general weakness, then indeed, should the newspaper press of the country give publicity to the fact. We refer to Dr. Guysott's Yellow Dock and Sarsaparilla, a medicine of which ever a million bottles were sold last year, without one single instance of complaint.—Times.

An editor who does not wish his name mentioned, writes as follows: "Excessive mental activity affected my health. My kidneys and liver gave me greatest annoyance. Severe headaches often made me unfit for work. Milky urine and other symptoms gave evidence of physical decay. Dr. Guysott's Yellow Dock and Sarsaparilla banished every feeling of distress. I think it the best medicine in the world, and shall do all I can to increase its sale."

Disease is an effect, not a cure. Its origin is within: its manifestations without. Hence, to cure the disease the cause must be removed, and in no other way can a cure be effected. WARNER'S SAFE KIDNEY AND LIVER CURE is established on just this principle. It realizes that of all diseases arise from deranged kidneys and liver, and it strikes at once at the root of the difficulty. The elements of which it is composed act directly upon these great organs, both as a food and a restorer, and, by placing them in a healthy condition, drive diseasese and pain from the system.

For the innumerable troubles caused by unhealthy Kidneys, Liver and Urinary Organs; for the distressing disorders of Women; for Malaria, and for physical derangements generally, this great remedy has no equal. Beware of imposters, imitations and concoctions said to be just as good.

How He Became Satisfied.

A great many boys mistake their calling but all such are not fortunate enough to find it out in as good season as did this one.

It is said that Rufus Choate, the great lawyer was once in New Hamp shire, mak ng a plea, when a boy the son of a farmer resolved to leave the plow and become a lawyer like Rufus Choate. He accordingly went to B s ton, called upon Choate, and said to him: "I heard you plead in our town and I have a great desire to become a lawyer like you. Will you teach me how?"

"As well as I can," said the lawyer. "Come, sit down" Taking down a copy of Blackstone he said: Read till I come back, and I will see how you get on."

The poor boy began. An hour passed, his back ached, his head ached and his legs ached. Every moment became a torture. He wanted air Another hour passed, and Mr. Choate came in and asked:

"How did you get on?"

"Get on? Why, do you have to read such stuff as this?"

"Yes"

"How much of it?"

'All there is on these shelves, and more," looking about the great li brary.

"How long will it take?'

"Well, it has taken me more than twenty five years."

"How much do you get?"

"My board and clothes."

'Is that all?"

"Well, that is about all that I have gained as yet."

Different Kinds of Benefits.

"Who is this well dressed man with the sealskin overcoat, hat and gloves? He carries a gold-headed cane, and is followed by a bulldog in a scarlet blanket. Do you know him?"

'Oh, yes; that is Slugger, the pugilist. Fine man. Hard hitter. Very popular. Always surrounded by a crowd of admiring friends, as you see him now. He is very well off; was given a benefit the other night which netted him $500."

"Indeed; he is very fortunate."

"Oh, yes, a very fortunate fellow; ranks high in his profession you see."

"Who is that white headed, weary-looking old man, close behind the pugilist and his friends? Poor man! he seems thinly clad for this wintry weather. Do you know him?"

"Oh, yes; that is Old Faithful, a country clergyman. Very learned man, they say. Been a preacher of the gospel all his life, but poor as a rat. He had a benefit, too, the other night."

"Oh, indeed! Did it net him much?'

"I don't think it did. You see, it was a sort of surprise party. His parishoners called upon him in a body, ate up everything there was in the house, and left him presents to the amount of 60 cents."—Summerville (Mass) Journal.

HATTER AND GENT'S FURNISHER, 258 Calhoun St.

It is an old maxim and a very true one, that "a penny saved is as good as two earned," and if you will notice you will find every self-made successful man applies it to himself.

Then don't go down town and pay $4 for a hat you can buy at 258 Calhoun street for $3; don't pay $3 for a hat you can buy at $2 25; don't pay $2 for a hat you can buy at $1.50; don't pay $1 50 for a hat you can buy for $1; don't pay $1 for a hat you can buy at 75 cents.

All Other Goods Equally as Low.

Come and see if I don't prove it to you, and that I mean business.
